Monthly Newsletter from the leader in sandbox software for DevOps and Cloud Automation

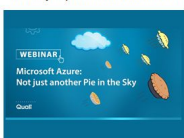

Tradeshows season is in full swing! This week, Quali will be in Vegas for VMworld (find us at booth #1660) discussing the General availability of CloudShell 9.0 with new features that provide save-and-restore capabilities to sandboxes as well as flexible new cloud provider templates for multi-cloud support. We'll also be conducting a live session and demo at the TechField Day Extra. We'll then be at Jenkins World in San Francisco and Delivery of Things in San Diego. Stop by and say Hello, if you're attending any of these events.

For Microsoft Azure fans, don't miss our upcoming webinar on modernize your application in the Azure public cloud with CloudShell 9.0 Quali's Shashi Kiran and Dos Dosanjh will be speaking on September 13th bringing to life some of the exciting capabilities we've been working with our partner Microsoft on.
